Dr. Mohamed M. El Zeidy currently holds the judicial position of Deputy President of the State Lawsuits Authority, Egyptian Ministry of Justice, and simultaneously since 2019, serves as the Senior Legal Advisor to the President of the Kosovo Specialist Chambers ("KSC"). From 2007 to 2019, he worked as Legal Officer for the Pre-Trial Division of the International Criminal Court ("Court"), where he participated in cases arising from various situations before the Court, including Uganda, Central African Republic, Kenya, Darfur-Sudan, Democratic Republic of the Congo, Comoros, Mali, Georgia and Libya. Prior to his positions at the KSC and the Court, he served as a chief judge at the South Cairo Court, Egyptian Ministry of Justice, senior public prosecutor and a public prosecutor, at the Office of the Prosecutor General of Egypt (1997-2007). Before joining the public prosecution office, he served as lieutenant, and first lieutenant in the Egyptian Police, Ministry of the Interior (1993-1997). Dr. El Zeidy holds a Ph.D. in international criminal law and an LL.M. in international human rights law with First Class Honors (National University of Ireland, Galway), an LL.M. in public law (Cairo University), a Licence en droit and Bachelor of Police Sciences (Police College-Cairo). He has participated and presented in many international conferences. He has also lectured at several universities and institutes in Europe and is widely published in the area of international criminal law both in English and in Arabic. He is the author of, inter alia, the "Principle of complementarity in international criminal law" (Martinus Nijhoff, 2008) and co-editor of "The International Criminal Court and Complementarity: From Theory to Practice" (Cambridge University Press, 2011) as well as many academic chapters and journal articles. He is a member of the American Society of International Law, International Association of Penal Law, Egyptian Society of Criminal Law. He also serves as a member of the Advisory Council of the Institute for International Peace and Security Law and of the editorial boards of the Criminal Law Forum: An International Journal, the International Criminal Law Review, and the Arab Yearbook of Public and Private International Law and as an external reviewer for the Leiden Journal of International Law and the Journal of International Criminal Justice. In 2017, pursuant to Ministerial Decree 1263 of 2017, he has been included in the list of arbitrators maintained by the Egyptian Ministry of Justice.